FLEXIBLE LEARNING AT A DISTANCE: LSU

Educating students at a distance has been part of LSU’s mission for over 95 years. Whether you want to earn college credit to apply toward a degree, to enhance your professional credentials, or to expand your horizons, LSU Online Distance Learning (ODL) offers the courses and flexibility you need to reach your goal. Please consult the LSU ODL website for course descriptions, course details, and information about policies and procedures for courses that interest you.

• Start a fully online college course anytime
• Complete in as little as 4 weeks—or take up to 6 months
• No admission to LSU required
• Apply credit toward your degree or professional goals

WHY TAKE A COURSE THROUGH LSU ONLINE DISTANCE LEARNING?
LSU Online Distance Learning courses can help you achieve your educational goals on your schedule. Refer to the website for complete policies and procedures.

WHAT IS AN ONLINE DISTANCE LEARNING COURSE?
LSU Continuing Education offers individual online courses that are delivered in Moodle for college credit. Credit can be transferred. All interaction in the course—assignments, quizzes, exams, instructor communication, discussion forums—is done online. A few courses are offered in an eight-week term, but most are self-paced and allow six months to complete. These courses provide convenience and flexibility; however, they are not a shortcut to earning credit or a form of credit by exam. Courses must be completed according to ODL policies, which are found on our website.

WHY TAKE A COURSE THROUGH LSU ONLINE DISTANCE LEARNING?
• Take the course you need and transfer the credit to your degree program
• Begin a course on your schedule: enroll any day, any time
• Plan your education around your life—no class meetings or admission hassles
• Work at your own pace: you will have six months to complete if you choose a self-paced course
• Receive college credit from an accredited university
• Benefit from our experience: LSU is a recognized leader in distance learning
• Take advantage of LSU’s excellent educational value

DO I HAVE TO BE AN LSU STUDENT TO ENROLL?
No. Admission to LSU (or other college or university) is not required.

WHAT CAN I DO WITH THE CREDIT FROM ONLINE DISTANCE LEARNING COURSES?
• Apply credit toward a degree at LSU
• Transfer credit to another university
• Use credit to meet licensing or certification requirements
• Learn new skills for your current employment
• Prepare for a new position or profession
• Prepare for college or graduate school

WHEN CAN I ENROLL?
For self-paced courses, you can enroll at any time. Many students complete the coursework and exams in less time than a typical semester. For term-based courses, check the website for the next available term.

HOW MUCH DO YOUR DISTANCE COURSES COST?
LSU undergraduate course fees through ODL are $184 tuition per credit hour, plus required fees. In addition, there is a $10 non-refundable processing fee for each course. You will also need to purchase textbooks. Some of our courses require additional materials. ODL courses require an exam proctoring fee paid directly to the required proctoring service. To learn more about specific course requirements, please refer to the course descriptions on our website.

CAN LSU COURSES MEET MY GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS?
Many students, both at LSU and other colleges and universities, use Online Distance Learning courses to meet English composition, analytical reasoning, arts, humanities, natural sciences, and social sciences requirements and prerequisites. LSU General Education courses are marked with a star (*) in this guide. Check with your advisor to see whether credit from LSU can be applied toward your degree requirements.

HOW DO I TAKE MY EXAMS?
You will take exams online through an online proctoring service, as instructed in your course.

IS LSU AN ACCREDITED INSTITUTION?
Yes. Louisiana State University and A&M College is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award baccalaureate, master’s, and doctorate degrees. Contact the Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097, or call 404-679-4500, for questions about the accreditation of Louisiana State University and A&M College.

LSU Online Continuing Education is a member of the University Professional & Continuing Education Association, the Association for Distance Education & Independent Learning, the Online Learning Consortium, the Electronic Campus of the Southern Regional Education Board, and the National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements.
